

TWM Conference Cancellation and Refunds Policy: Requests for refunds of conference fees must be submitted in writing via email to conference@madavor.com. A $50 cancellation fee will be charged for refund requests received by August 1, 2022. There will be no refunds after August 1 with the exception of refund requests for medical-related reasons. Refunds will be credited to your original form of payment within 30 days after your request is approved.

All critique fees are non-refundable; however, you will receive your critique via email if you are unable to attend the event. Note that we cannot accommodate critiques submitted after the deadline provided, so please ensure your manuscripts are submitted in advance of the deadline listed in your registration confirmation or risk forfeiting your critique.

COVID-19 Policy: The Writer's Conference will follow all official safety guidelines in place at the time of the event, including local mandates put forth by the city of Boston. While we cannot predict what those guidelines will look like in September 2022 due to the evolving nature of the pandemic, participants should be prepared for the possibility of safety mandates including – but not limited to – providing proof of vaccination and/or indoor mask mandates.

Event Cancellation Policy: Madavor Media reserves the right to cancel events wholly or in part in case of an insufficient number of participants, program cancellations, organizational reasons, changes of availability of speakers, force majeure or other unforeseeable events that render the execution of the event impossible and/or not worthwhile or that would lead to the organizer incurring unreasonable expenses in executing the event. The organizer shall immediately inform participants of such changes.

Should an event be canceled by the organizer for organizational reasons or as a result of force majeure, as outlined above, the organizer will refund the event fee in full. Claims for further liabilities or damages are excluded. Participants may not assert any further claims and any such claims shall be excluded. This also applies to compensation claims for travel and accommodation costs and lost working hours.